2006.17.1	Daybook of Allyn M. Mather of Windsor, CT, 1830-1839	Belden, George Bower, Sidney Brown, Pliney Fish, Jonathan Hayden, Levi Marshall, Eliakim Mather, Allyn M., 1772-1860 Mather, Col. Oliver, 1749-1829 Mather, Increase, 1752-1838 Mather, Return S. Morgan, Jasper Pierson, William Sill, Henry A. Swan, Nathaniel	1830	1839	Entries dated from Jan. 1, 1830- June 10, 1839. Appears to be three distinct sections to the records.1) Jan 1 - Mar 1830, entries record regular transactions for the sale of a wide range of dry goods, food, liquor, and general merchandise. Many familiar Windsor names are found including Levi Hayden, Jasper Morgan, Eliakim Marshall, Henry A. Sill, and William Pierson. 2) details work done for other people, amount the man was paid for each job. The author took in boarders, did haying and fencing, and cared for family members. 3) final two pages include inventories of personal goods that were stored at five separate houses in Windsor in the spring of 1839. The author recorded quite a bit of work for Increase Mather, both outdoor chores and personal care, and referred to him as 'uncle.' An entry on Feb. 24, 1837 is followed by the signature Allyn M. Mather, one of his nephews. Additional research has found that Allyn Mather owned the property at 306 Broad St., Windsor and was in business variously by himself and with partners selling dry goods, hardware, crockery, groceries and country produce. Notice of an auction to dispose of the entire stock of Mather's store was published in the Connecticut Courant on Mar. 23, 1830. Additional research evidence helps attribute the account book to Allyn M. Mather.
